The contributions of the student editors in this issue have been written under the supervision of individual members of the law faculty. Publication of signed contributions from any source does not signify adoption of the views expressed either by the LAW REVIEW or its editors collectively.

The LAW REVIEW makes the following announcements:

The Hill Law Review Prize, established in 1927 by George Watts Hill of the Durham Bar, and presented to the student editor who makes the best total contribution to the LAW REVIEW during the year, is awarded to Irvin Elsworth Erb.

Joel Barber Adams has been selected as Student Editor-in-Chief for next year.

As a result of the first-year competition, the following student editors have been selected: Maurice Victor Barnhill, Jr., William Robert Booth, Joe Lee Carlton, Franklin St. Clair Clark, Franklin T. Dupree, Jr., Thomas Horne Leath, Frank Marion Parker, and Newman Alexander Townsend, Jr.

The following faculty research assistants have been appointed for 1934-1935: Joel Barber Adams, Emmett Clive Willis, Jr., John
